CUSIP identification numbers will be printed on the Notes if the purchaser provides Bond Counsel with such numbers by telefax or any other mode of written communication (verbal advice will not be accepted) by 5:00 o'clock P.M. on the date following the sale of the Notes, but neither the failure to print such number on any Note nor any error with respect thereto shall constitute cause for a failure or refusal by the purchaser thereof to accept delivery of and pay for the Notes in accordance with the terms of the purchase contract. All expenses in relation to the printing of CUSIP numbers on the Notes shall be paid for by the School District, provided, however, that the CUSIP Service Bureau charge for the assignment of said numbers shall be the responsibility of and shall be paid for by the purchaser.

As a condition to the purchaser's obligation to accept delivery of and pay for the Notes, such purchaser will be furnished, without cost, the following, dated as of the date of the delivery of and payment for said Notes: (i) a certificate of the President of the Board of Education certifying that (a) a Closing Certificate, constituting a receipt for the Note proceeds and a signature certificate, which will include a statement that no litigation is pending, or to the knowledge of the signers, threatened affecting the Notes, (ii) an arbitrage certificate executed on behalf of the School District which will include, among other things, covenants, relating to compliance with the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), with the owners of the Notes that the School District will, among other things, (A) take all actions on its part necessary to cause interest on the Notes not to be includable in the gross income of the owners thereof for Federal income tax purposes, including without limitation, restricting, to the extent necessary, the yield on investments made with the proceeds of the Notes and investment earnings thereon, making required payments to the Federal Government, if any, and maintaining books and records in a specified manner, where appropriate, and (B) refrain from taking any action which would cause interest on the Notes to be includable in the gross income of the owners thereof for Federal income tax purposes, including, without limitation, refraining from spending the proceeds of the Notes and investment earnings thereon on certain specified purposes; and (iv) the unqualified legal opinion as to the validity of the Notes of Timothy R. Such certificate shall state that it is made on the best knowledge, information and belief of the successful bidder after appropriate investigation.

The purchaser, by purchasing the Notes, agrees either that (i) its purchase of the Notes is for its own account, or as a fiduciary for others, for the purpose of investment and not with a view to distributing the Notes, or (ii) the Notes are, or will be, sold to no more than thirty-five (35) persons each of whom the purchaser reasonably believes has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the prospective investment, and is not purchasing for more than one account or with a view to distributing the Notes.

The School District shall provide, for the benefit of holders of the Notes, as and when required, either directly or through a designated agent, notice of Material Events required by SEC Rule 15c2-12(b). Notices of the Material Events required by SEC Rule 15c2-12(b) (5) (i) (C) will be provided to each nationally recognized municipal securities information repository or to the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board and to the appropriate state information depository, if any.

Nothing in this secondary market disclosure undertaking shall be deemed to prevent the School District from disseminating any other information, using the means of dissemination set forth in this secondary market disclosure undertaking or any other means of communication, or including any other information in any notice of Material Events, in addition to that which is required by this secondary market disclosure undertaking. If the School District chooses to include any further information in any notice of Material Events in addition to that which is specifically required by this secondary market disclosure undertaking, the School District shall have no obligation under this secondary market disclosure undertaking to update such information or to include it in any future notice of Material Events.

In the event of the School District's failure to comply with any provisions of this secondary market disclosure undertaking any such holder may take such actions as may be necessary and appropriate, including seeking mandate or specific performance by court order, to cause the School District to comply with its obligations under this secondary market disclosure undertaking. No monetary damages shall arise or be payable hereunder nor shall any failure to comply with this undertaking constitute a default of the School District with respect to the Notes.
