

NOTICE OF SALE

LAFARGEVILLE CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

JEFFERSON COUNTY, NEW YORK

$4,000,000 Bond Anticipation Notes, 2010

Telephone (315-752-0051, Ext. 1), telefax (315-752-0057) or written proposals will be received and considered by the undersigned President of the Board of Education, of the LaFargeville Central School District, Jefferson County, New York, at the offices of Fiscal Advisors & Marketing, Inc., 120 Walton Street • Suite 600, Syracuse, New York 13202 until 11:00 o'clock A.M., Prevailing Time, on the 4th day of March at which time, they will be opened and awarded, for the purchase in Federal Funds, at not less than par and accrued interest of $4,000,000 Bond Anticipation Notes, 2010 (the "Notes") to be dated March 16, 2010 and maturing July 9, 2010, with interest payable at maturity. The Notes are to be issued without option of prior redemption.

The purchaser(s) shall have the option of having the Notes issued in registered form in the name of the purchaser(s) or in the form of book-entry-only notes registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee for The Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), New York, New York. If the Notes are registered in the name of the purchaser(s), principal of and interest on the Notes will be payable in Federal Funds at maturity at such bank(s) or trust company(ies) located and authorized to do business in the State of New York as may be selected by the successful bidder(s). Paying agent fees, if any, are to be paid by the purchaser(s).

The Notes will be valid and legally binding general obligations of the School District, all the taxable real property within which will be subject to the levy of ad valorem taxes to pay the Notes and interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount. The School District will pledge its faith and credit for the payment of the principal of the Notes and interest thereon. Principal and interest on the Notes are payable at maturity in lawful money of the United States of America (Federal Funds).

The School District will act as Paying Agent for the Notes. The School District contact information is as follows: Ms. Nicole Parliament, Business Manager, LaFargeville CSD, Dist. Offices-20503 Sunrise Ave., P.O. Box 138, LaFargeville, New York 13656, Phone: (315) 658-2241, Fax: (315) 658-4223, Email: nparliament@lafargevillecsd.org

Each bid may be for all or any part of said Notes and state a single rate of interest therefor in a multiple of 1/100 or 1/8 of one per centum per annum. Interest will be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year and a 30-day month. Any bidder may submit two separate bids at different rates of interest. Each bid must be for not less than the par value of the Notes bid for. All or none bids will be rejected.

Said Notes will be awarded to the bidder or bidders offering the lowest net interest cost, that being the rate of interest which will produce the least interest cost over the life of the Notes, after accounting for the premium offered, if any. If two or more bids offering to purchase the same principal amount of Notes at the same lowest net interest rate are received, an award will be made by lot from among such lowest bids. In any event, the award of said Notes will be made on the basis of the bid or combination of bids offering to purchase the Notes on terms most favorable to said School District. The right is reserved by said School District to reject any and all bids and any bid not complying with this Notice of Sale will be rejected.

If the purchaser(s) notifies Bond Counsel by 3:00 P.M., Prevailing Time on the date of sale, such Notes may be issued in the form of book-entry-only notes, in the denominations corresponding to the aggregate principal amount for each Note bearing the same rate of interest and CUSIP number. In the event that the Purchaser(s) choose registered notes, as a condition to delivery of the Notes, the successful bidder(s) will be required to cause such note certificates to be (i) registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York ("DTC"), and (ii) deposited with DTC to be held in trust until maturity. DTC is an automated depository for securities and clearinghouse for securities transactions, and will be responsible for establishing and maintaining a book-entry system for recording the ownership interests of its participants, which include certain banks, trust companies and securities dealers, and the transfers of the interests among its participants. The DTC participants will be responsible for establishing and maintaining records with respect to the Notes. Individual purchases of beneficial ownership interests in the Notes may only be made through book entries (without certificates issued by the School District) made on the books and records of DTC (or a successor depository) and its participants, in denominations of $5,000 or integral multiples thereof. Principal of and interest on the Notes will be payable by the School District by wire transfer or in clearinghouse funds to DTC or its nominee as registered owner of the Notes. Transfer of principal and interest payments to participants of DTC will be the responsibility of DTC; transfer of principal and interest payments to beneficial owners by participants of DTC will be the responsibility of such participants and other nominees of beneficial owners. The School District will not be responsible or liable for payments by DTC to its participants or by DTC participants to beneficial owners or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing the records maintained by DTC, its participants or persons acting through such participants.

The Notes will be delivered in New York City or as may be agreed with the purchaser(s) on or about March 16, 2010. The purchase price of the Notes, in accordance with the purchaser's(s') bid, shall be paid in Federal Funds or other funds available for immediate credit on the delivery date.

A CUSIP identification number will be printed on the Note(s) if the purchaser(s) provides Bond Counsel with such numbers by telefax or by any other mode of written communication (verbal advice will not be accepted) by 5:00 p.m. Prevailing Time on the date following the sale of the Notes but neither the failure to print such number on the Note nor any error with respect thereto shall constitute cause for a failure or refusal by the purchaser(s) thereof to accept delivery of and pay for the Note in accordance with the terms of the purchase contract. All expenses in relation to the printing of CUSIP numbers on the Note shall be paid for by the School District; provided, however, that the CUSIP Service Bureau charge for the assignment of said numbers shall be the responsibility of and shall be paid for by the purchaser(s). Delivery of the Note to DTC requires the use of a CUSIP number.

As a condition to the purchaser(s)'s obligation to accept delivery of and pay for the Notes, such purchaser(s) will be furnished, without cost, the following, dated as of the date of the delivery of and payment for said Notes: (i) a certificate of the President of the Board of Education certifying that (a) as of the date of the Official Statement furnished by the School District in relation to said Notes which Official Statement is deemed by the School District to be final for purposes of Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c2-12, except for the omission therefrom of those items allowable under said Rule, said Official Statement did not contain any untrue statements of material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, subject to the condition that while information in said Official Statement obtained from sources other than the School District is not guaranteed as to accuracy, completeness or fairness, he has no reason to believe and does not believe that such information is materially inaccurate or misleading, and (b) to his knowledge, since the date of said Official Statement, there have been no material transactions not in the ordinary course of affairs entered into by the School District and no material adverse changes in the general affairs of the School District or in its financial condition as shown in said Official Statement other than as disclosed in or contemplated by said Official Statement, (ii) a Closing Certificate, constituting a receipt for the Note proceeds and a signature certificate, which will include a statement that no litigation is pending, or to the knowledge of the signers, threatened affecting the Notes, (iii) an arbitrage certificate executed on behalf of the School District which will include, among other things, covenants, relating to compliance with the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), with the owners of the Notes that the School District will, among other things, (A) take all actions on its part necessary to cause interest on the Notes not to be includable in the gross income of the owners thereof for Federal income tax purposes, including without limitation, restricting, to the extent necessary, the yield on investments made with the proceeds of the Notes and investment earnings thereon, making required payments to the Federal Government, if any, and maintaining books and records in a specified manner, where appropriate, and (B) refrain from taking any action which would cause interest on the Notes to be includable in the gross income of the owners thereof for Federal income tax purposes, including, without limitation, refraining from spending the proceeds of the Notes and investment earnings thereon on certain specified purposes, (iv) a Certificate of the School District, executed by the President of the Board of Education, stating that the School District has agreed, in accordance with the Rule 15c2-12, to provide or cause to be provided, timely notice of the occurrence of certain material events with respect to the Notes, and (v) the unqualified legal opinion as to the validity of the Notes of Trespasz & Marquardt, LLP, Bond Counsel, Syracuse, New York. Reference should be made to said Official Statement for a description of the scope of Bond Counsel's engagement in relation to the issuance of the Notes and matters covered by such legal opinion. Furthermore, reference should be made to the information under the headings "LEGAL MATTERS" and "TAX MATTERS" in the Official Statement.

In the event of a default in the payment of the principal of and/or interest on the Notes, the State Comptroller is required to withhold, under certain conditions prescribed by Section 99-b of the State Finance Law, state aid and assistance to the School District and to apply the amount thereof so withheld to the payment of such defaulted principal and/or interest, which requirement constitutes a covenant by the State with the holders from time to time of the Notes.

The Notes will be deemed designated “qualified tax-exempt obligations” pursuant to Section 265(b)(3) of the Code.

Following the sale of the Notes, the successful bidder will be required to provide to the School District certain information regarding the reoffering price to the public of the Notes. The successful bidder will also be required to provide to the School District within five (5) days after the award of the Notes certain information regarding the re-offering price to the public of the Notes. The successful bidder(s) shall furnish to the School District a certificate acceptable to Bond Counsel, dated as of the day of closing of the Notes, stating the initial prices at which a bona fide public offering of all of the Notes was made and stating that 10% or more of the Notes were in fact sold to the public (excluding bond houses, brokers and other intermediaries) at or below such initial respective public offering prices. Such certificate shall state that it is made on the best knowledge, information and belief of the successful bidder(s) after appropriate investigation.

Any party executing and delivering a bid for the Notes agrees, if its bid is accepted by the School District, to provide to the School District, in writing, within two business days after the date of such award, all information which said successful bidder determines is necessary for it to comply with SEC Rule 15c2-12, including all necessary pricing and sale information, information with respect to the purchase of municipal bond insurance, if any, and underwriter identification. Within five business days following receipt by the School District thereof, the School District will furnish to the successful bidder, in reasonable quantities as requested by the successful bidder, copies of said Official Statement, updated as necessary, and supplemented to include said information. Failure by the successful bidder to provide such information will prevent the School District from furnishing such Official Statement as described above. The School District shall not be responsible or liable in any manner for the successful bidder’s determination of information necessary to comply with SEC Rule 15c2-12 or the accuracy of any such information provided by the successful bidder or for failure to furnish such Official Statements as described above which results from a failure by the successful bidder to provide the aforementioned information within the time specified. Acceptance by the successful bidder of such final Official Statements shall be conclusive evidence of the satisfactory completion of the obligations of the School District with respect to the preparation and delivery thereof.
